

Are you currently pregnant?

Would you like support from a student midwife?

My name is Masey and I'm a student midwife in my second year at Australian Catholic University. I'm 24 years old and I live in Fitzroy.

Continuity of Care Experience

As part of my studies, I'm looking for pregnant people to accompany and support through pregnancy & early postpartum alongside their elected care provider. Having a student midwife is a great way to guarantee a familiar face throughout your pregnancy care!

My role would include:

- Attendance at 4+ antenatal appointments
- Labour & birth support (if you're comfortable!)
- 2+ postnatal appointments
